

This is your chance to get involved!

Our Future Voice is teaming up with Capital Education to offer a

2012 Elections Program in Washington, DC: An Insider's Look (May 20-25)

This limited space, hands-on program includes:

- Direct access to party leaders, campaign pros, pollsters, print journalists, TV reporters/pundits and advocacy groups
- Real training and networking opportunities with campaign pros
- One-on-one campaign or DC internship placement assistance
- Exclusive hotel lodging at Capitol Hill Suites
- Optional DC tours, receptions and social events
- Total Program Cost per participant including Capitol Hill Hotel lodging: $1300.
- Total Program Cost without hotel lodging: $600

In 2008, Barack Obama made history by being elected America's first African-American president...

In 2010, the Republicans, led by current Speaker Boehner, swept into the House Majority...

In 2011, the Tea Party forced the issues of US government spending and debt to the top of the political agenda...While the Occupy Movement advocated for the 'other 99 percent.'

What Will You Be Doing During the Historic 2012 Elections?

Our Future Voice and Capital Education are dedicated to empowering students and recent graduates to gain the skills and direct experiences needed to be future advocates and productive citizens.

Deadline to apply and submit deposit, February 27. Find out more and contact us at:
